To become a member of the Philip Roth Society, visit the society’s Web site and register using PayPal, or fill out this form and mail it to the address below. Annual membership fees are $20 without the journal and $30 for institutions, which includes a subscription to the Philip Roth Society newsletter as well as a 20% discount on the journal, Philip Roth Studies. Memberships that include the journal are: $50 for US members and $55 for non-US members. Membership should be paid by check or money order (made out to “Philip Roth Society”). To be listed in the directory of members on the Roth Society’s Web site, please indicate so on the form below.

Name: _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Academic Affiliation (if any): __________________________________________________________________________________

Address: ___________________________________________________________________________________________________

Phone: ____________________________     Email: ________________________________________________________________

Web Page: __________________________________________________________________________________________________

I give permission for the listing of my name, affiliation, email, and Web page information (if applicable) on the directory of members at the Philip Roth Society’s Web site:

Full Name Signature: _________________________________________________________________________________________

Mail to: The Philip Roth Society
        c/o Matthew Shipe
        Washington University in St. Louis
        Campus Box 1122
        One Brookings Drive
        St. Louis, MO 63130-4899

The Philip Roth Society is a non-profit community of readers and scholars and has no official affiliation with either Philip Roth or his publishers.

For more information, and a sample newsletter, visit the Philip Roth Society Web site at https://www.philiprothsociety.org/